

THE ADVOCATE.

HARRIS & MASON, Proprietors.

MT. STERLING, TUESDAY, APR. 7, 1891.

FOR PRESIDENT.
GROVER CLEVELAND,
Of New York.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.
JOHN G. CARLISLE,
Of Kentucky.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR CIRCUIT COURT CLERK,
HENRY R. BRIGHT,
of Montgomery County.

FOR SHERIFF,
JOHN C. RICHARDSON,
of Montgomery County.

We are authorized to announce Hon. Jno. D. Clardy, of Christian county, as a candidate for Governor, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Hon. J. L. Elliston, of Montgomery county, is a candidate for Attorney General, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

TO ADVERTISERS.

You are looking for the best medium through which to reach the people.
You will find that medium in the MT. STERLING ADVOCATE. For the reasons that it has a larger circulation than any paper published here, and reaches more people who are tributary to Mt. Sterling than any other publication. Our books are open to advertisers and they can satisfy themselves of the truth of this assertion.

A BIG BLUFF.

The Italian Minister Recalled.

On Tuesday the State Department at Washington were a little startled by the sudden announcement of Baron Fava, the Italian Minister to the United States, that he had received instructions from the officials of his government to leave Washington and that the business of the Legation was in charge of the Marquis Imperiali.
In a letter of March 31 to Secretary Blaine, Baron Fava says:

"By my two notes of the 15th and 18th insts., I had the honor to call your Excellency's serious attention to the occurrences of exceptional gravity which took place at New Orleans on the 14th, whereby four subjects to the King of Italy, who were confined in the prison of that city, were massacred by the crowd, under the leadership of two American citizens.

"After having formally protested against the unjustifiable conduct of the local authorities, which were evidently recreant to all their duties on that occasion, I reserved to the Government of his Majesty the right to demand such satisfaction as it might think proper. . . . The reparation demanded by the Government of the King, as I have had the honor to inform you in our interviews held during the last few days, were to consist of the following points:

"First—The official assurance by the Federal Government that the guilty parties should be brought to justice.

"Second—The recognition, in principle, that an indemnity is due to the relatives of the victims.

"Your Excellency was pleased to declare to me that, as the Federal Government did not think it could take this view of the case, it declined to take the two aforesaid demands into consideration. Under these circumstances, the Government of his Majesty, considering that the legiti-mate action of the King's Minister at Washington becomes inefficacious, has ordered me to take my leave."

Secretary Blaine replied to the Marquis Imperiali and in his letter he says:

"I beg to express the sincere regret with which the Government of the United States receives the intelligence of Baron Fava's speedy departure from the Capital. Though he has more than once intimated this purpose, the Government of the United States has been unable to see adequate reasons for such a step.

"The cause of his sundering his diplomatic relations with this Government is thus given in his note:

"The reparation demanded by the Government of the King, as I have had the honor to inform you in our interviews held during the last few days, were to consist of the following points:

"First—The official assurance by the Federal Government that the guilty parties should be brought to justice.

"Second—The recognition, in prin-
relatives of the victims."

"The first demand, thus stated by Baron Fava, is slightly changed in phrase from that employed by him in his many verbal requests, based on a telegram from the Marquis Rudini,

Insure Your Life

with CUNNINGHAM in the Largest Insurance Co. on the globe. Has more surplus and writes the most liberal policy issued.

THE NEW FREE TONTINE RETURN PREMIUM POLICY of the old

NINGHAM and get one.

which he left with me. The Marquis Rudini declared that 'Italy's right to demand and to obtain punishment of the murderers, and an indemnity for the victims, is unquestionable.' It is inferred that Baron Fava's change of phrase meant no change of demand.

"The President is unable to see how any Government could justly give an assurance of this character in advance of a trial and a verdict of 'guilty.' In the Constitution of the United States it is declared that in all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed. It needs no argument to prove that a jury could not be impartial, if it were in any sense, or to any degree, bound before the trial of the accused, by an assurance which the President of the United States had ventured to give to a foreign power.
In the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, under whose immediate jurisdiction the crimes were committed, substantially the same provision is found, so that the Governor of that State would be as unable to give a pledge in advance for the result of a trial under State law, as the President would be, were it practical to try the leaders of the mob under the laws of the United States.

"In Baron Fava's second point, he demands the recognition, in principle, that an indemnity is due to the relatives of the victims. He is assuredly under a grave error when he declares that the United States Government declined to take the demand into consideration, and I shall regret if he has communicated such a conclusion to your Government.

"I have repeatedly given to Baron Fava the assurance that, under the direction of the President, all the facts and incidents connected with the unhappy tragedy at New Orleans on the 14th of March last should be most thoroughly investigated. I have also informed him, that in a matter of such gravity the Government of the United States would not permit itself to be unduly hurried; nor will it make an answer to any demand until every fact essential to a correct judgement shall have been ascertained through legal channels. . . . I can know no other way to secure the most substantial justice."

The facts are about as follows: On the 15th of October David C. Hennessy, Chief of Police of New Orleans, was assassinated by a band of Italian cut-throats. Many of these were arrested and the State made out what was considered a positive case. But it was clearly established before the verdict was brought in that the jury had been tampered with, and it was no surprise when a verdict of acquittal was brought in for several of the accused and a mistrial reported as to the rest. The Italian element made every demonstration of joy at the result, going even so far as to hoist an Italian flag over the United States flag which was suspended upside down. These demonstrations so exasperated the already terribly outraged citizens of New Orleans that a call was made for a mass meeting the morning after the jury reported on the case, and the citizens having assembled to the number of some thousands, proceeded to the parish prison and shot without mercy eleven of the accused, not waiting to enquire whether they were subjects of Italy or the United States.
Investigation develops that all but three of those slain were naturalized citizens of the United States, and it is probable that the remaining three were also subjects of this Government.
But, whether they were or not, there was no special ill treatment accorded to the cut-throats from sunny Italy that was not meted out to those undeniedly subjects of the United States. The Italian government wishing to do something that would tend to make it solid at home and draw the attention of its subjects for many causes for discontent, seized upon this chance opening and King Humbert twists his mustachios and swaggers around as if he really wanted a war with this nation, thus making himself and his government anything but a dignified spectacle in the eyes of the world. There will be a big amount of bragadoia, but no war. Italy doesn't want it, can't afford it in fact, and the United States is by no means spoiling for a fight either.

All law-abiding foreigners of whatever nationality, who come to our shores for the purpose of finding a home will receive a hearty welcome from our people. Infamous cut-throats and red-mouthed enemies of law and order, whether followers of John Most or members of the Mafia, will receive a very different kind of treatment, of that be assured.

HORSE AND TRACK.

Daisy Rolfe, sister to Nelson, 2:10½, will be bred to Prince Regent, 2:10½.
C. J. Hamlin has announced that Ed. Geers will drive his horses this year.

The horse for any purpose must have a good frame of bone and muscle.

Nearly $800,000 has already been paid for trotters this year in Kentucky.

There will be more horses in training at the Lexington fair grounds this season than ever before.

Graylight, 2:16½, to be handled by Budd Doble this year, is booked by a horseman for a mile in 2:11.

The number of private sales of trotting stock at Lexington and vicinity, is said to be unprecedented.

Jack and Palo Alto, free-for-all rivals last year, retired at the close of the season with like records, 2:12½.

Doble, Splan, McHenry, Geers and Blair, are the only men that have ridden a mile below 2:10 in a sulky.
The first four made their trips behind pacers.

There is a filly at Palo Alto by Electioneer, out of the pacing mare Lucy, that promises to step low in the teens. She is one of the kind that is not for sale at any price.

The first foal at the Hobart ranch this year is by Stamboul, 2:11, out of Prospect Maid, 2:23½, the $15,000 daughter of George Wilkes that was taken to California a few years ago.

James Miller Sunnyside Stock Farm, Paris, Ky., has sold to D. H.
Moore, Athens, O., the bay stallion Tilford, by Bourbon Wilkes, dam by John Dillard, Jr. He is seven years old. Price $10,000.

Hark Comstock says that Axtell's three-year-old record of 2:12, is really better and expresses more positive trotting inclination and capacity than the eight-year-old records of Stam-boul, 2:11, and Nelson, 2:10½.

Andrew J. Coleman, of Lexington, Ky., has sold to John E. Madden, of the same city, the three-year-old filly Cleop, by Gambetta, dam by Macey's Hambletonian, for $5,000. She holds the world's two-year-old record over a half-mile track.

G. Conkling, Glens Falls, N. Y., has sold to a New York horseman the bay stallion Fox, Stanford, five years old, by Electioneer, dam Barnes by Hambletonian. He has a three-year-old record of 2:23½. Reported price $15,000.

This season will probably witness the building of more tracks than were ever before constructed in a single year. From all over the country we receive communications from associations intending to begin work as soon as the weather permits in the spring.

An effort will be made to bring Margaret S., Nancy Hanks, Alabaster, Navidad, and other crack five-year-olds together in a five-year-old stake at the Northwestern Association of Trotting Horse Breeders' annual meeting in Chicago next August.

Allerton, 2:13½, and Axtell, 2:12, are the two fastest stallions ever bred by the same breeder. Jay-Eye-See, 2:10, and Maud S., 2:08½, the fastest pair ever raised, were bred at the same farm. Sunol, 2:10½, and Palo Alto, 2:12½, are the fastest mare and stallion ever raised by one breeder.

W. T. Withers, Fairlawn Farm, Lexington, has sold to F. E. Freeman, Paducah, O., a foal in utero, for $2,000.
The foal is by Red Wilkes, dam Bonny Belle by Almont; second dam Alice Drake (dam of Norman Medium, 2:20, and Alice Addison, 2:28½) by Alexander's Norman; third dam by Pilot, Jr.

This is the time of year to breed mares, beyond a doubt; for the colt dropped in January or February stands a good chance to win over the colt that is foaled in May, by just as many months as intervenes between the dates named, says an exchange.
If a two-year-old has a right to defeat a yearling, so has a nineteen-months-old colt just as much advantage over a fourteen-months old colt. Hence, we repeat, this is the time of year to cast about as to how and where you will breed your mares.

Eleven trotting sires are standing for public service in Germany, of which six were bred in America.
Three are standing at Berlin West End, one at Berlin Weissensee and two at Mariabell. The six named are Podarek, Hazelwood, Macey's Hambletonian and Linwood at Berlin, and Lumps and France's Alexander at Mariabell. France's Alexander beat all the best horses of his day, including Hannis, Santa Claus, Rob. McGregor and half a dozen others equally good.
There are some seven or eight Orloff (Russian) trotting stallions standing for hire in and about Berlin, the daughters of which will be bred to these American stallions.

months old $525; from Doc Deatherage, 1 yearling, $600, and 2 weanling colts, at $400 each; from J. W. Heendon, 1 five months, by Soroco, $650; from J.
P. Embury, two yearlings, for $900.

H. R. Walker, of Fayette, Mo., purchased an aged jack from Wm. Arnold, for $1,150.

D. M. Ennis, Armstrong, Mo., bought of R. P. Fox one jack for $12.50.

N. C. Ames, of Illinois, paid $1,000 to J. Boen for a fine jack.
Mr. Corn, of Missouri, bought of Mr.
Smith, of Athens, Fayette county, 1 jack for $750. This transaction occurred in this city.

J. W. Herndon sold to Moberly and Cosby four jack colts for $1,200.

Some of the New York papers are quoting prominent Italians of that city as expressing the belief that in case of trouble between the United States and Italy the naturalized Italian residents of their country would side with their native land and against the country of their adoption. If this be true then it is well that our people should know it, and the sooner we become aware what status these hot-blooded, quick-grown, citizens are to occupy, the better. If this Italian incident shall lead to a revision of our naturalization laws then Hennessey will not have died in vain.
